

Born in Sweden, Anna-Karin's upbringing in Germany and French-speaking Switzerland has made her both multilingual and internationally-oriented. After returning to Sweden, Anna-Karin studied both at university in Örebro and at the School of Economics in Gothenburg. She is keenly interested in art and paint both watercolours and oils, and works with pottery. Her main interest however is her dog, Gorm.