

Elena is originally from Russia and like our other postgraduate students, she is not afraid to change environment and culture, but looks around in an open-minded way, taking opportunities as they arise. Elena has studied marketing at LUTH. Her studies were partly in Swedish, partly in English.